Luncheons, Receptions, Theatre Parties and Other Social Affairs Serve as Pleasant Vehicles for Entrance of "Buds" Into the Fashionable Set.

With two of the features of the New York season—the premiere at the Metropolitan Opera House and the horse show at Madison Square Garden—over the debutante will be the centre of attraction from now until the Christmas holidays, after which the entertaining will be more general, and for both the young and the old. Most of the affairs scheduled for the next four weeks, however, are for the buds, who are very numerous this year. Receptions at which they make their formal bows will be followed by dinners, theatre parties and dances in their honor, and not a day will pass from now until the end of next month but what one or more entertainments will be given in their honor. On some days there are half a dozen girls who will be introduced, and as they have pretty much the same friends the latter are kept extremely busy making calls on all of them in one afternoon.

Several important weddings will take place in New York next Tuesday, the day Miss Jessie Wilson becomes the bride of Francis B. Sayre in Washington. One of them will be that of Miss Gladys Roosevelt, daughter of John Ellis Roosevelt, to Fairman R. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans R. Dick, which will be celebrated in St. Bartholomew's Church. Miss Roosevelt will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., as matron of honor, and by Miss Jean Roosevelt, another sister, as maid of honor. Evans R. Dick, Jr., will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., George Emlen Roosevelt, O'Donnell Iselin, M. L. Tilney, Alexander D. Grant, J. Austen Amory and George Marvin. There will be a reception at the home of Mr. Roosevelt, No. 818 Madison avenue.

Another wedding set for next Tuesday will be that of Miss Edith Logan, daughter of Mr. John A. Logan, to Dewees W. Dilworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Dilworth. It will take place in the afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Thomas's Church. Miss Logan will have her sister, Mme. Henri St. Paul de Sincay, of Paris, for her matron of honor, and Miss Mercedes de Acosta, Miss Audrey Osborn, Miss Vouletti Proctor and Miss Eleanor Lamson will be bridesmaids. William de Forest Manlove will be best man, and Joseph Dilworth, Lawrence C. Beggs, Robert S. Potter, Rufus S. Tucker, Arthur Gardner, J. Macy Willets, Gordon L. Rand, Henry Sproul, F. Bayward Rives, H. Sellers McKee, Seth Barton French and Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr., will be ushers. A reception will follow at the home of Mrs. Logan, No. 17 West 56th street.

Miss Eleanor Hinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Post Hinton, will be married to Delavan W. Baldwin, of this city, next Tuesday afternoon in St. George's Church. Miss Isabel Hinton will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids chosen are Miss Mabel Hinton, Miss Rosina Otis, Miss Dorothy Salisbury, Miss Ruth Haskins, Miss Dorothy Dominick and Miss Louise Baldwin. Runyon S. Baldwin, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers will include Martin S. Baldwin, John P. Ramsay, Morris Groves, Shelton E. Martin, William F. Lawson and Roland D. Baldwin. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hinton, No. 45 West 55th street.

The marriage of Miss Edie Constance Zabriskie, daughter of Mrs. Cornelius L. Zabriskie, to Raymond Williams Stephenson, of this city, will take place next Tuesday afternoon in the Second Reformed Church, Hackensack, N. J. A reception will be held at the home of Mrs. Zabriskie in Hackensack. Miss Zabriskie is a second cousin of Mrs. Mary B. Pell, who died at her home, No. 182 Riverside Drive, on May 25 and left most of her $5,000,000 estate to Columbia University, Rutgers College and the Reformed Church of America. Mr. Stephenson was graduated from Columbia in 1910.

Miss Anne Loomis, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. John W. Dyar, of Grosse Point, Detroit, will be married to J. Harry Alexandre, of this city, next Saturday in Detroit. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Loomis, whose engagement to Joseph Dilworth, of Pittsburgh, has been announced; Miss Virginia and Miss Mary E. Alexandre, sisters of the bridegroom. Mr. Alexandre will have his brother, Frederick A. Alexandre, as best man. Miss Loomis is a niece of Mrs. Lamar La Fayette Fleming, of Rye, N. Y.

In the Church of the Heavenly Rest next Saturday afternoon Miss Marjorie P. Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Weeks, of No. 70 West 46th street, will be married to John H. Stewart, of this city. Attending the bride will be Miss Eugenie A. Philbin, Miss Tesson Thayer, Miss Mary Jacob, Miss Virginia Stewart, of Savannah, and Miss Eleanor Nash, of Baltimore. William Eleanor Cary, of Baltimore, will act as best man, and the ushers selected are John C. Weeks, Lindsay H. Welling, S. Bonnal White, Walter Hughson, Ernest W. Pitman, Charles H. Snowden and Francis A. Lewis, 3d. A reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weeks.

The marriage of Miss Doris Porter, daughter of Alfred H. Porter, of No. 123 East 26th street, will be married to Harry I. Caesar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Caesar, of No. 19 West 76th street, on Saturday, December 27, in the chapel of St. Thomas's Church. Miss Katherine Hoagland will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will include Miss Adeline Townsend, Miss Natalie Slocum, Miss Hazen Symington and Miss Eleanor McCarter. Gray McW. Bryan will be best man, and the ushers are to be Charles U. Caesar, Arthur Barber, Kenneth M. Seggermann, Edward C. Page, Joseph C. Hoagland and Purser E. Adams.

Announcement was made last Friday
